and book of the same name by Robert Macfarlane and Jackie Morris a book that was in turn a creative response to the removal of everyday nature words like acorn, newt and otter from a new edition of a widely used children's dictionary. Both the book and Burton's 32-minute work which is written in 12 short movements for upper voice choir in up to 3 voice parts with either orchestral or piano accompaniment celebrates each lost word with a beautiful poem or spell magically brought to life in Burton's music. At its heart the work delivers a powerful message about the need to close the gap between childhood and the natural world. Burton's piece was co-commissioned by the Hallé Concerts Society for the Hallé Children's Choir and the Boston Symphony Orchestra. The piano accompaniment version was premiered at the Tanglewood Festival in 2019 by the Boston Symphony Children's Choir of which Burton is founder and director. The Hallé Children's Choir will premiere the orchestral version of the full work in Manchester UK post-pandemic. Vocal score co-commissioned by Boston Symphony and Hallé Concerts Society for their respective children's choirs. Two versions with orchestral or with piano accompaniment. The vocal score is the same for both versions. James Burton is a composer but also a conductor. He is conductor of the Tanglewood Festival Chorus and choral director of the Boston Symphony. The book The Lost Words exquisitely designed has won multiple awards and is an international best-seller. The vocal score includes Jackie Morris's beautiful imagery in its cover design. Record Label Marketing offers a comprehensive look at the inner workings of record labels showing how the record labels connect commercial music with consumers in the current climate of selling music through both traditional channels and new media. Authors Tom Hutchison, Paul Allen and Amy Macy carefully explain the components of the contemporary record label's marketing plan and how it is executed. This new edition is clearly illustrated throughout with figures, tables, graphs and glossaries and includes a valuable overview of the music industry record label marketing.

Unfaithful Music and Disappearing Ink is the long awaited memoir from Elvis Costello one of rock and roll's most iconic stars born Declan Patrick MacManus Elvis Costello was raised in London and Liverpool grandson of a trumpet player on the White Star Line and son of a jazz musician who became a successful radio dance band vocalist Costello went into the family business and had taken the popular music world by storm before he was twenty four Costello continues to add to one of the most intriguing and extensive songbooks of the day his performances have taken him from a cardboard guitar in his front room to fronting a rock and roll band on your television screen and performing in the world's greatest concert halls in a wild variety of company

Unfaithful Music describes how Costello's career has somehow endured for almost four decades through a combination of dumb luck and animal cunning even managing the occasional absurd episode of pop stardom this memoir written with the same inimitable touch as his lyrics and including dozens of images from his personal archive offers his unique view of his unlikely and sometimes comical rise to international success with diversions through the previously undocumented emotional foundations of some of his best known songs and the hits of tomorrow the book contains many stories and observations about his renowned co-writers and co-conspirators though Costello also pauses along the way for
