Revelation 2016-09-28 the authoritative literature concerning the history of the Jesus Christ is contained within the New Testament he is the supreme subject of the whole library every several book gathers its value from its testimony to his person his teaching or his work the perfection of the whole is created by its unification in him the first four of its books chronicle his deeds and his words during the brief span of a lifetime lasting for a generation the rest of the book is occupied with the subject of his deeds and his words through all subsequent generations the book of Acts is the first chapter in that history of the church which is the history of the work of Christ by the Holy Spirit through his people the epistles contain the teaching of Christ by the Spirit through chosen men for the guidance of his church until his second advent the last book contains a prophetic vision of the final movements which shall firmly establish his reign over the whole earth the Old Testament for his coming and chronicles for these days the methods by which the hope of his advent was kept alive and indeed burned ever more brightly through the process of the past the new is the history of that advent and the new message of hope the inspiration of which men move through the confusion of conflict towards the certainty of ultimate victory the history of the New Testament is at once the story of the life of Jesus of Nazareth and the account of the accomplishment of the mission of the Christ these are phases forming the one perfect story the life of Jesus was carrying out of the mission of the Christ the work of the Messiah was accomplished in the orderliness of the life of Jesus in this connection it is interesting to notice the opening and closing verses of the New Testament Matthew the evangelist places Jesus in his relation to the race the book of the generation of Jesus Christ the son of David the son of Abraham the reference is not to the whole of the New Testament nor to the whole of the Gospel but to the genealogy which immediately follows the beginning here of the word Christ declares the appointment of this man to definite service rather a title than a name by his name Jesus he is indicated as united to the race coming through the chosen people by the title Christ he is identified as the one who comes to fulfil the promises of the past by the accomplishment of divine purposes the last verse of the New Testament reads the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all the saints Amen here there is prefixed to the name Jesus the title Lord the reviser versions both english and american have relegated the word christ to the margin some ancient authorities however include it the essential value of this comparison verses is not interfered with whichever view may be taken the new testament opens with a declaration introducing the man jesus and declaring his appointment to service it closes with a benediction which announces the crowning of jesus as king consequent upon his accomplishment of the purpose appointed and the use of the word grace as the portion of the saints reveals the glorious issue of that work came for a purpose the purpose is realized he was anointed of god for the doing work the work is accomplished and he is now the lord through whom the grace of god is expressed towards and becomes operative in such as are subject to him between the opening words of matthew and the closing statement of john there is the story of his life and the account of his mission

Facing the Music 2004 this study uses composition criticism to consider everything that Luke wrote about Jesus. Jesus was a human being and a prophet yet Luke writes much more. He has a very extensive and developed portrayal of Jesus as a saviour. His roles as servant of Yahweh and son of man play a real part in explaining a number of Jesus' experiences and actions, including his passion. Jesus' identification as the Christ can be associated with the being son of God, but each of these identifications has its own nuances. Luke 1:35 proves crucial for a correct understanding of son of God and guides the reader's comprehension of Jesus' identity. The OT background of Lord leads to a correct interpretation of this title when applied to Jesus, and Luke willingly predicates similar things of God and of Jesus.

The Mark of a Christian 2012-05-01 committed to Christ: six steps to a generous life is a six-week stewardship program that presents giving as a lifelong journey in Christian discipleship. This adult readings and study book is designed for use in the six-week small group study that undergirds the program as well as by others participating in the program after an introductory Sunday stressing the importance of commitment to Christ. The next six weeks are spent exploring six steps to a generous life: prayer, Bible reading, worship, witness, financial giving, service with others. Each step readers are asked to assess prayerfully their own level of commitment and consider increasing that commitment by one step. Equal emphasis is placed on each of the six steps, clearly communicating that this program is not simply about money but rather cultivating a thankful heart that will lead us to giving more than we could ever imagine for a program that focuses on the totality of stewardship. There is no better. Jim Polk, Senior Pastor, El Dorado First United Methodist Church, El Dorado, AR.

Christ In All The Scripture 2022-11-13 this book seeks to demonstrate that those references to christ are found in all of the scriptures on the glorious resurrection morning mary went to seek for jesus she sought him in the tomb but he stood before her she thought he was the gardener but the one word mary revealed to her he is our saviour as we read some passage in the old testament how often our eyes are lifted and we see only the earthly form we see aaron the priest or david the shepherd or solomon the king but if like mary we are really seeking the lord jesus he manifests himself to us through the outward type and we turn in glad surprise and looking for him say rabboni lit my great one as we continue to seek we find him in the least expected places of the old testament until the whole grows luminous with the glory of god the face of jesus christ in the volume of the book it is written of me all the lines of history and type of psalm and prophecy converge towards one centre jesus christ and to one supreme event his death on the cross for our salvation and from that centre again all the lines of history in the book of acts of experience in the epistles and of prophecy in revelation radiate out once more to testify that the father sent the son to be the saviour of the world after his resurrection our lord not only opened the scriptures to his disciples but also opened their understanding that they might understand the scriptures he is ready to do the same for us the same holy spirit that moved holy men of old to write the scriptures is close at hand to make the word of the new testament only a brief summary is here given partly because they are so much more studied partly because to treat of them at any adequate length would swell this book beyond the limits of a single volume and still more because the aim of the present studies is to show that christ is the key to the old testament scriptures

Leading Your Child to Christ 1999-01-01 the final book of the bible revelation prophesies the ultimate judgement of mankind in a series of allegorical visions and images and numerological predictions according to these empires will fall the beast will be destroyed and christ will rule a new jerusalem with an introduction by walter self you discovered many of the things you were taught at church are not true deception he never knew you as he commanded you to depart from him because you practiced lawlessness and through your ignorance or neglect of his eternal word you never the will of your heavenly father even though you claimed to have the testimony his son Jesus Christ tragically this will be the dreadful fate of many who believed what their spiritual leaders told them since our salvation is based on the eternal word of God if we do not read study and meditate on God's word for ourselves will we know when we have been lied to and led astray join me on this journey to set free from the lies and deception in this comprehensive Bible study I will unveil God's truth so his people are no longer deceived by lawless men who are doing works of Satan with all power signs and lying wonders and with all unrighteous deception be among those who perish because they did not receive the love of truth that they might be saved in this book we will discover the answers to the thought provoking questions and much more why has God spiritually blinded some of his people and given them over to the reprobate mind why must we understand the apostle Paul's writings in context based on the whole counsel of God's word do new covenant believers proclaim the law is done away with when Jesus tells did not abolish the law or the prophets if God's law is no longer valid for new covenant believers then what will we be measured and judged against on judgment day when all the books plural are opened up what is the new covenant what are primary differences between the old covenant and the new covenant why is the covenant still in effect for new covenant believers why was the church birthed book of Genesis rather than the book of Acts what qualifies those who are separated distinguished and selected chosen from amongst the children of Israel to be the of Christ many are called but few are chosen

Christlife 2017-09-15 does your church make you uncomfortable it's easy to dream about the perfect church a church that sings just the right songs set to just the music before the pastor preaches just the right sermon to a room filled with just the right mix of people who happen to agree with you on just about everything characterize your church doesn't quite look like that but what if instead of searching for a church that makes us comfortable we learned to love our church even when it's challenging what if some of the discomfort that we often experience is actually for us this book is a call to embrace the uncomfortable aspects of Christian community whether that means believing difficult truths pursuing difficult holiness or loving difficult people all for the sake of the gospel God's glory and our joy
