consideration of the great amount of traditional and historical interest which attached to the site that it was after much deliberation and the consideration of numerous suggestions on the subject determined to erect the new palace on the same spot after the destructive fire in 1834 and at the opening of the ensuing parliament one of the earliest measures decided upon was that a select committee be appointed to consider and report upon such plans as may be most fitting and convenient for the permanent accommodation of the houses of parliament it was at first contemplated that the old buildings might be so far retained that with additions and improvements the houses of parliament might again assemble in them but on due consideration this idea was abandoned about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
